

Presenting in English

Do you have an excellent level of English but lack the confidence and experience to speak in front of larger groups? If so, 'Presenting in English' will help you to build your confidence while also expanding your repertoire of language to deliver presentations with impact.

Whether you intend to introduce your company to visitors from the U.S. or make a formal presentation in London, 'Presenting in English' will help you to develop the necessary language and skills to express your ideas as well as techniques for the effective structuring of your speech or presentation.
