

Financial English: English for Financial Professionals

	Day One	Day Two	Day Three	Day Four	Day Five
am	Financial English Programme Orientation Tips & techniques to build financial and non-financial English vocabulary	Finance for Business <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Financial and investment decisions Sources and uses of finance Titles and the roles of Financial Managers 	International Loan Agreements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Covenants syndications Warranties conditions, etc. 	Bonds <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Corporate Bonds Government Bonds Yields, etc. 	Mergers & Acquisitions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Investment appraisals Return on capital Cash flow Financing Numbers, Trends, Market Movements, and Statistics Vital foundations for accurate speaking, listening and writing.	Financial Statements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Structure Terminology Presentation 	Money Markets <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Banking structures Services Operations Risks 	Hedging Financial Risk <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Futures Options Swaps 	Venture capital <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Deal structures Start-ups Development finance Exit strategies, etc.
pm	Corporate Governance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Company structures Investor relations Anglo-American model 	Analysing Financial Statements <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use of financial ratios, asset valuations, depreciation, amortisation, Understanding financial statements 	Stock Exchange <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Operations on the London and other Stock Markets Types of financial instruments Analysing investment performance 	Bankruptcy and Receivership <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Insolvency Bankruptcy Liquidation Receivership 	National Economy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inflation, monetary policy Fiscal policy Economic fundamentals Effects on markets
	Case Study: Financial English Case study with accompanying texts, including vocabulary exercises, video presentations and discussions to practice and perfect your use of Financial English.				Revision and Consolidation End of Programme Test
© Communicaid Group Ltd. 2005					